

How do I utilize the EA program currently?

Dear EA Members,

These are difficult times for all of us and some EA face-to-face meetings are suspending their face to face meetings due to concerns over gathering or because their location is closing. We anticipate these closings to continue. Some EA meetings are switching over to alternative formats (telephone, skype, chat etc). We have a list on our website of those meetings that have changed on the revolving carousel on the homepage and we will also post that information on the meeting locator on the website (where you have always found information for each meetings). Please check your meeting information before attempting to attend a meeting for the next few weeks. There are already many 'alternative format' meetings running - if your meeting is not able to continue consider attending one of the existing meetings in phone/chat/skype etc. This information is found here.

If you're looking for something to occupy your time...

Please consider a writing something and submitting it to EA International. In 2020 we will work through the 12 Promises as they relate to the Steps in our news letter. You can find out more information here. We are also looking for submissions for pamphlets, a new reader, workbooks, etc.
