

Today, May 5, 2020, is #GivingTuesdayNow - a day to come together to help our communities be strong, resilient, heal and move forward. We are asking for your support now in order to continue to offer resources like the Loop, Chatzy Chat meetings, creation and production of new literature, the event calendar listings and our new monthly publication, Strength & Hope. Donations also make possible the website, updates on meeting locations, email announcements (including our new Experience, Strength & Hope series) and staff to answer questions by phone or email. Please consider making a contribution to help maintain your organization.
